Guest accommodation consists of fully accessible single en-suite bedrooms. The cost of the weekend includes all meals, unlimited refreshments and use of facilities. Babies in arms are welcome, please speak to us for more details.

2019 Theme: Dare to Be Different? Living for Christ in a Hostile World

It can be hard living as a Christian woman today. How can we live consistent and godly lives in a world that seems increasingly hostile? Looking at the book of Daniel, we can learn how not just to survive, but thrive as Christians, as we look at Daniel and the great God he served.

Clare Heath-Whyte

Our guest speaker Clare is married to David, a vicar in South London. They have two children who both got married last summer. Most of her time is spent doing children's and women's ministry in the church. As a former history teacher she loves researching and writing about Christians from the past and feels very privileged to have been published. She also loves teaching the Bible at women's events. In her spare time, now that she is no longer wedding planning, she reads trashy crime fiction and watches costume drama.

Booking Information

There are three rates, which include a Concessionary Rate of £140 (a subsidised rate for students and those on lower incomes), a Standard Rate of £195 and a Generosity Rate of £250 (of which the surplus will subsidise a number of places). We are aware that the cost of the weekend may be prohibitive; if this is the case, please contact Antonia Easley, our Pastoral Assistant, who will be able to assist in confidence.
