

Women Together is a group that welcomes women of all ages and backgrounds from across All Saints Church in Lindfield.

Meeting throughout the year, our events are a great opportunity to meet new friends, build relationships, to support and encourage each other and to deepen our relationship with Jesus. Some events are great to invite our non-Christian friends in the community to. We believe that God has a purpose for every woman in his church, regardless of the stage of life they are in.

We would love to welcome you at any of our events. You can contact us via the church office: 01444 482405 or: allsaints@lindfield.info.

Women Together is run by the following group: Becky Cornwell, Antonia Easley (Chair), Katharine Hobby, Sarah Newnham & Carol Taylor.

Women Together 2019-20

“Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God.”

Stories of Seasons

Saturday 5th October 7.45pm in the church

A chance to listen, learn and be encouraged as we hear a real story from a woman reflecting on what God has been doing in her life.

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle!

Saturday 23rd November 7.45pm in the church

Our guest speaker, Colin McFarlin, will inspire us to up our game when it comes to recycling and inform us about what is going on locally in the context of a growing concern for our planet. You will also be able to learn how to make re-usable food wraps from beeswax. Why not invite a friend along.

Keeping the balance

Saturday 25th January 9.00am in the church

Teaching, sharing and reflecting to increase our awareness of how much we give out and some of the rhythms and resources that God has given to maintain and protect our well-being.

Stories of Seasons

Saturday 28th March 9.30-11am in the church

A chance to listen, learn and be encouraged as we hear another real story from a woman reflecting on what God has been doing in her life.

This year we won't be having a weekend away BUT we're offering you some of the key things we love about our time away
