1. Praying for our Nation

- For our leaders and scientists working under pressure and making big decisions.
- For our NHS staff and other key workers keeping services going.
- Care Homes, especially Compton House - residents being nursed alone, lots of pressure on staff.
- For FSW, ROC and Foodbank supporting families locally.
- For this crisis to lead to a turning back to the Lord.

2. Praying for our World and our Mission Partners

- Pray for other nations and leaders around the world fighting the virus.
- For Moses & Mohan supporting those living on the margins in India.
- For the Milson family in Valencia, slowly coming out of very strict lockdown.
- For the Andersons in Bolivia, unable to return home.
- For Jono Long, remaining in Chile to work with YWAM.
- For mission agencies for whom funding may have slowed.

3. Praying for the vision of All Saints

- For James and Chris as they plan for, a now delayed, retirement.
- For the Church Wardens, Laurence and Katie as they oversee the church
- Church Society, our 'patrons' who help us find a new Vicar.
- Chichester Diocese, especially for Ruth and Will, new bishops appointed today.
- For Lindfield, that we can reach the lost with the good news of Jesus.

4. Praying for the people of All Saints

- The families of Ken Eldred, Margo Munnion and Eddie Koepl who recently passed away.
- The Griffiths, Mains, DeCruzs and Paxtons welcoming new children into their families.
- For families with the pressure of home school and home working.
- For those struggling with pressures of mental health and isolation.
- For those fearful about jobs and finances.
- For the church staff team finding new ways to work and minister.
