

Tiger Arts Evening Concerts 2017

in All Saints Church building

February 25th

Lancing College Music Students

An evening of music, through the ages, presented by talented students from Lancing College music department.

April 14th

Good Friday Sacred Concert

Bach's 'Out of the deep' and 'Christ Lay in the Bonds of Death' form the first half of this concert with Stainer's Crucifixion as part two. The New Sussex Singers, All Saints Orchestra and soloists will present the evening under the baton of Musical Director, Alex Roose.

April 15th

Saltmine Theatre Company presents 'Darkness Falls'

Tiger Arts in collaboration with the Sussex Gospel Partnership bring this outstanding Theatre Company's presentation of 'Darkness Falls' to Mid Sussex. 'Darkness Falls' is a remarkable re-imagining of the Gospel of John. Moving, funny, poetic and fantastical the play mixes vivid storytelling with beautiful live music to bring you a timeless story, as you've never seen it before.

June 3rd

Garth Hewitt in Concert

Garth will be in Lindfield as part of his 'Strange Weapons' tour. Drawing on his extensive catalogue of songs of struggle and hope, regrets and home comings Garth tells the stories behind the songs he has written, bringing meaning and depth to what he sings.

September 9th

Lindfield Arts Festival

In 2017 All Saints will be more accessible with the pews removed so last year's postponed 'Reclaiming Childhood' art exhibition by celebrated portrait painter Claire Phillips will be on display for the month of September and on the festival weekend will be supported by international agencies seeking to eradicate both child and adult slavery. In the evening there will be a 'Jazz at All Saints' concert.

October 14th

Rhos Welsh Male Voice Choir with special guest Elin Manahan Thomas

Since their last visit to Lindfield the choir has won more prizes at international events and in particular the International Eisteddfod at Llangollen. This year however, is going to be even more special as Elin Manahan Thomas will be their special guest. They have worked together before and this promises to be an outstanding evening.

December 2nd & 3rd

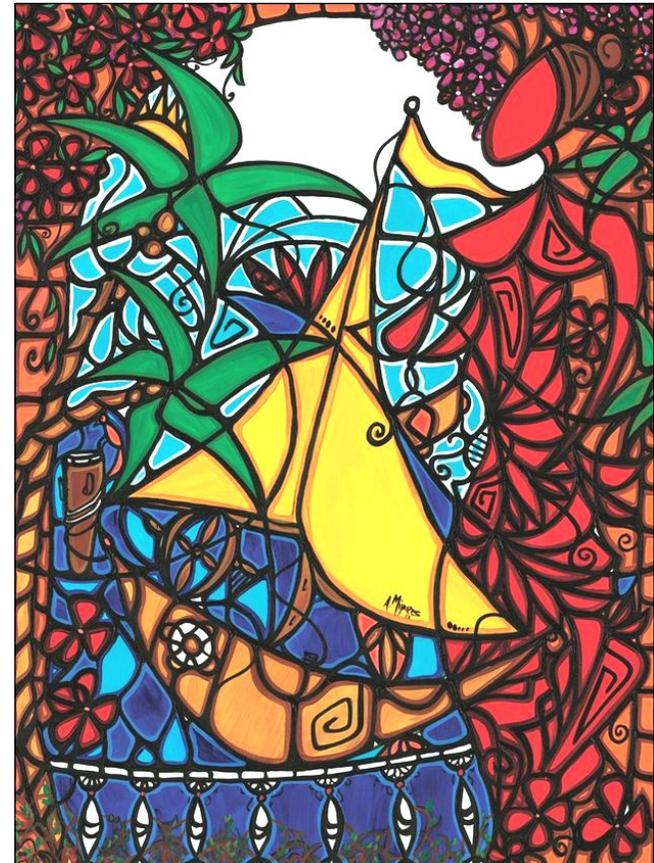

The Merry Opera Company

The company are returning to Lindfield and because of the demand will present two dramatised performances of Handel's Messiah. For those who are not keen on going out on dark nights there will also be a matinee performance on Sunday afternoon. Another 'not to be missed' event.

ALL SAINTS

The Parish Church of Lindfield

Growing up into Christ - reaching out into the world

Tiger Arts 2017

LUNCHTIME CONCERTS meeting at All Saints Church in 2017

January 11th

Robinswood Band

5-piece local band with Brian Reynolds (Guitar, Mandolin & vocals), Bernard Cole (Guitar & vocals), Stewart Partridge (Fiddle & vocals), Stewart Kinning (Accordian & Keyboard) & Keith Faggetter (Bass & vocals).

February 8th

Duo Illumina

Ellie Lovegrove (Trumpet) and Richard Moore (Organ) graduates of the RCM play at many prestigious venues. Ellie also plays with many top orchestras and can often be found playing in West End musicals. She has also performed fanfares for Her Majesty the Queen. Richard too is well known for organ recitals at St Martin in the Fields, St Pauls Cathedral and other prestigious venues across the Home Counties.

March 8th

Juan Pablo Hinojoza (Piano)

Juan is Mexican and a student at the RCM. He played last year for us and returns by popular request. I think his performance last year was the first time a lunchtime concert artiste has received a standing ovation. It's a concert you won't want to miss.

April 12th

Shona Knight (Soprano)

Shona studied her BA (Hons) degree in music at Durham University graduating in 2013. In her final year she won a concerto competition to perform Britten's Soprano Song Cycle, les Illuminations with the university Chamber Orchestra before touring the work in Prague.

May 10th

Seaford College

Based in Petworth, Seaford College is a centre of excellence for young people to achieve personal best in music, sport and the arts along with other academic subjects. We look forward to welcoming them on their first visit to perform in Lindfield.

June 14th

Orpheus Centre Musicians

A residential performing arts centre for young disabled artists founded by Richard Stilgoe

July 12th

Jane Houghton & The Singing Allsorts.

This local ladies choir return to Lindfield under the leadership of Jane Houghton, classical and opera soloist.

August 9th

Amanda Buckland (Soprano) & Brian Stanborough (Piano)

Known to her many friends by her married name Mandy Pomorski, Mandy is a professional opera singer and co-director of Opera Brava. She will be accompanied by Brian Stanborough the celebrated pianist.

September 13th

Jo Kimber and her Jazz Band.

A welcome return to Lindfield of this popular singer. Jo began her career as a dance band singer working with many well known cabaret artistes. She is in great demand especially in central Sussex.

October 11th

Roedean School for Girls, Brighton

Set on the cliffs, East of Brighton overlooking the English Channel is another excellent place of learning. It's described in the advertising as a place 'that challenges every girl to find her strengths. We look forward to their first visit to us in Lindfield.

November 8th

Stepping Out.

Local Barbershop Quartet. This will be another first for Tiger Arts. A great quartet.

December 13th

Dr. Rachel Smith (Flute) & Friends.

Rachel and friends will perform a programme of Baroque, Classical and Romantique music at this lunchtime recital.
