New printed Church Directory

1. For those who weren't able to pick up a new printed Directory over Christmas please pop in to the church office and collect a copy (one per family). The best source for the up-to-date contact details of those in the congregation who have given us permission to share their details (by completing a GDPR form – downloadable from our Website) is the on-line address book within our website. To access this you will need a log in – If you don't yet have one please contact the office. This will also enable you to keep your own details up-to-date and avoid errors creeping in, and in this context . . .
