

Nominations for the APCM

18th May 2026

Church Warden (2 places)

	Kevin Hargin Kevin became church warden in April 2022 and has served during that time as vice chair of the PCC and a member of the finance and staff resourcing committees. Kevin is married to Joy and has been a member of All Saints for many years. In his spare time, he's a grandfather and chair of trustees at Compton House Christian care home.
	Helen Tuddenham I've always believed in Jesus and became a committed Christian in my early twenties. I'm married to David, and we have two adult children, Jamie and Dan, and we've been attending All Saints for the last 25 years. You can usually find me at Cornerstone, though I sometimes lead the morning services. In the past I have been involved in Pathfinders and was the Treasurer on the PCC (a while back!). Outside of All Saints, I run my own executive coaching and leadership development business, and in the summer, you can often find me on a cricket pitch.

Parochial Church Council (4 places)

	Emily Billson Living in Lindfield, I have been worshipping at All Saints for almost 20 years, usually at the Cornerstone service. My husband and I have three children, Seren, Theo and Etty, who are also regulars when not away studying at university. I am currently an Assistant Warden and am on the intercessions and bible reading rota. Outside of All Saints I work in the employee benefits industry, and can often be seen walking around the local area, almost obsessively!
	Hilarie Carter I have lived in Lindfield since 1982 and attended All Saints Church since 1983. I usually go to the 9.30am and 6.00pm services, I am an Assistant Warden and I am part of a Connect Group. I have 3 boys who are all grown up with their own families and I have 9 grandchildren who keep me on my toes!
	Steve Norris I am Steve Norris, married to Lindsay and we have three grown up children, with three grandchildren and we normally attend the 9.30 service, often with our granddaughter Sylvie. We have been part of the All Saints family for over thirty years and we have been involved with many aspects of church life, currently we are helping with the ALPHA course.
	Laurence Trigwell Laurence has worshipped at All Saints for many years, is married to Katie, with three grown up children and a handful of grandchildren. He's previously served as Churchwarden, sat on the PCC and in various roles throughout the life of the church.

Deanery Synod (6 places)

	Sue Broadstock I am Sue, married to Tony, and we live in Lindfield. I have attended All Saints for the last seven years, where I belong to a Connect Group and am on the Bible Reading Rota for the 11.15 service. I have volunteered at Tiger at Ten and Forget-Me-Knots and took over the role of Parish Safeguarding Officer in May 2025.
	Tim Griffiths Tim is a regular at the 9:30 and Cornerstone services and an enthusiastic welcomer at the 11:15. Since his recent retirement, Tim has joined Good News for Everyone (formerly Gideons) with a strong heart for the gospel and the authority of Scripture.
	Noah Mitchell I go along to the 6:00pm service and help out with the streaming. I regularly go along to the board game evenings (they're good fun!). Outside of church, I'm an IT consultant that works down in Brighton.
	Mike Swarbrick I've been part of All Saints for the past 20 years, mainly through Cornerstone, where I play in the band. I've also helped with the holiday club and previously served on the PCC during the Aspire project. I'm married to Alice, who helps with the morning crèche and is part of the Cornerstone coffee rota. We have two grown-up sons, both of whom moved to different parts of the country last summer.
	Oli Taylor Oli grew up at All Saints, is married to Natalie and together they have 3 children. Oli is part of a Connect Group and the 9.30am welcome team. Oli works in financial services and last year took on the role of Treasurer for the PCC.
	Cavan Wood Cav has been a member of All Saints for forty two years. He is married to Sarah and has two children. He is interested in books, cinema and politics.
